2. ANNUAL SUMMARY: QUALITY OF THE EXECUTION OBTAINED ON THE TOP FIVE EXECUTION VENUES FOR EACH CLASS OF INSTRUMENT

Information Assessed	Conclusions
An explanation of the relative importance the firm gave to the execution factors of price, costs, speed, likelihood of execution or any other consideration including qualitative factors when assessing the quality of execution	Class of Instrument - Equities – Shares & Depositary Receipts The primary factors affecting a choice in execution venue for listed equities are price together with cost. Other considerations such as speed, likelihood of execution and settlement, reduction of market impact, size, nature or other relevant points related to an order, are also taken into account, especially for larger orders. Class of Instrument - Debt instruments When trading OTC debt instruments, orders are called in to the Executing Broker who will act as Principal in most cases. AKJ seeks to get a fair price on behalf of its clients, looking at multiple factors such as bid/ask price available, liquidity offered by the execution provider, and where possible price of similar products when market data is scarce or not available. Except to the extent that a client gives specific instructions, AKJ applies discretion when determining the timing and structure of order placement in the market, with the aim of achieving Best Execution given the size of the order, liquidity available and prevailing market conditions. Class of Instrument - Interest rate/credit/currency/securitised and other listed derivatives When trading listed derivatives through AKJ, we act on either an agency or matched principal basis. The primary factors affecting a choice in execution venue for listed derivatives are price together with cost. Other considerations such as speed, likelihood of execution and settlement, size, nature or other relevant points related to an order, are also taken into account. Class of Instrument - Exchange traded products (ETFs, ETNs and ETC) The primary factors affecting a choice in execution venue for exchange traded products are price together with cost. Other considerations such as speed, likelihood of execution and settlement, size, nature or other relevant points related to an order, are also taken into account.
